Macmillan In Ghana at Outset Of African Tour

ACCRA (UPI). — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan yesterday started his African tour with one of the quietest welcomes Ghana ever has given a visiting dignitary.

Only some 100 people greeted Mr. Macmillan when his plane touched down on the first stop of a 17,000-mile tour designed to sell British goodwill and win the influence for Britain in Africa.

The roads from the airport were deserted.

In a low-key airport statement, Mr. Macmillan said it must appear to most people he was a "travelling salesman" rather than a Prime Minister.

But he said he felt his job-trotting was necessary for first-hand knowledge of what was going on in the world.

Ghana Premier Kwame Nkrumah said Mr. Macmillan's visit would strengthen Britain's bonds not only with Ghana but with all Africa.

Private talks between the two Prime Ministers were scheduled before dinner at the Governor's Lodge.

They were expected to discuss Ghana's $100m. Volta River dam and aluminum smelting project. There was wide expectation that they would also touch on Ghanaian concern over the French Sahara nuclear test.

Mr. Macmillan who is accompanied by his wife, Lady Dorothy, will spend six days in Ghana before going on to Lagos, capital of Nigeria.

Ghana-Guinea Union To Be 'as Close as UAR'

ACCRA (Reuters). — Mr. Kofi Baako, the Ghana Minister of Education and Information, said yesterday while African leaders were doing everything for the independence and unity of the continent, "imperialists and colonialists are doing everything in their power to obstruct our efforts and objectives."

The Minister was speaking on Tuesday night at the University College of Ghana.

Answering a question, he said that a declaration would be made very soon on the complete union of Ghana and Guinea which are now linked in the Declaration of Union of a year ago.

So far complete union had been impossible because Guinea was a republic and Ghana a monarchy, Mr. Baako said. He added: "as you may be aware, preparations are being made to change the constitution of Ghana to make it a republic. When this is done, the main barrier to the achievement of complete union will be overcome, and we shall then become one state, as the United Arab Republic."

34 KILLED IN U.S. PLANE CRASH

MIAMI (Reuters). — Thirty-four persons were killed when an airliner flying here from New York crashed before dawn yesterday in woods near the small town of Bolivar.

There were no survivors among the 39 passengers and five crew.

In New York, National Airlines said the crashed plane — a DC-8B — was one of two substitute airliners put into service to replace a Boeing 707 jet airliner, which was made to make the New York-Miami flight with 106 passengers but was withdrawn because of mechanical trouble.

Of the original jet passengers 76 were transferred to an Electra turbo-prop aircraft and reached Miami safely.

From Malta, yesterday, two British warships joined in the search for the American aircraft with 18 men missing over the Mediterranean since Monday.

IRAQ COMPLETES 'TRANSITION' ERA

LONDON (Reuters). — Iraqi "Peace Partisans" headed hundreds of thousands of people who marched past the Ministry of Defence in Baghdad on Wednesday in a demonstration marking Army Day and the end of the "transitional period" in the country's political life, Baghdad radio reported.

Iraq's political parties were due to resume their activities after a five-year ban under a new law which became effective yesterday.

The new law replaces a decree of November 24, 1954, banning party political life. It was promulgated by the then Premier, Nuri Said, who was killed in the revolution of July, 1958, which brought the Ba'ath Party to power.

The new law provides that the new parties — or the reorganised old ones — must not be run on military lines and their objectives must not conflict with the country's independence, national unity or republican system.

School students, judges, army and foreign service personnel and government administrative directors are forbidden from joining parties.

The marchers in yesterday's Baghdad parade were reviewed by Premier Kassem and the procession was held up for minutes when he appeared on the balcony of the Ministry to receive the cheers of the crowds.

Slogans carried by the demonstrators included: "Death to imperialists, traitors and plotters and those coveting our homeland." Others welcomed the end of the return of political parties. Yet another banner greeted "the people and Kurds in Persia struggling against the reactionary Central Treaty Organisation."

During the late afternoon the procession was soaked by a fall of rain.

The march, according to the Baghdad radio commentator, expressed "solidarity between the army and the people under the leadership of Prime Minister Kassem" and also represented "all the forces of Iraq."

Tehran Blasts Mahdawi, Moscow

TEHRAN (Reuters). — Tehran Radio yesterday intensified its attack on the Kassem regime in Iraq. Colonel Fadhil Abbas Mahdawi, President of the Iraqi People's Court and the Soviet Union.

The radio said the "wicked dirty Mahdawi will soon be hanged from the gallows."

Asserting that anti-Persian propaganda from Baghdad was dictated from Moscow, the radio went on to describe Mahdawi as "corrupt and a thief" and alleged he was imprisoned five years ago when, as a captain, he was convicted of misappropriation of coal supplies from an army arsenal.

The marchers in yesterday's Baghdad parade were reviewed by Premier Kassem and the procession was held up for minutes when he appeared on the balcony of the Ministry to receive the cheers of the crowds.

Slogans carried by the demonstrators included: "Death to imperialists, traitors and plotters and those coveting our homeland." Others welcomed the end of the return of political parties. Yet another banner greeted "the people and Kurds in Persia struggling against the reactionary Central Treaty Organisation."

Syrian Ex-Minister May Be Brought to Trial

LONDON (Reuters). — The former Minister of Economy of the Syrian Republic, Khalil Kallias, whose resignation was announced on Monday night, may be brought to trial, according to the Beirut daily "El Hayat," quoted by the Israel Arab Broadcasting Service.

The report did not stipulate what the charges against him might be.

Kallias is a member of the Ba'ath party, and his resignation was announced a few days after that of four other Ba'ath leaders holding posts in either the U.A.R. Central Government or the Syrian Region administration.

The Ba'ath paper said the delay in announcing Kallias's resignation, which was submitted to Nasser together with the resignation of the other four Ministers, was because the question of bringing him to trial was under consideration.

Israel Radio Amateur Wins International 'Hams' Contest

By PAUL KORN, Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV. — Yair Ben-Nissim, 28, of Kfar Ganim, near Petah Tikva, learned on Wednesday that he has won the 1958 world amateur radio "hams" contest for contacting the largest number of other amateurs all over the world in two days.

Mr. Ben-Nissim, whose "ham" nickname is "Green Banana," amassed 832,706 points in the 1958 contest, beating Kenya radio amateur who had 850,000 points and a British "ham" with 540,000 points.

The placings will be officially announced on May 1, when the New York "Radio Amateur's Journal" — the "Ham's Bible" — publishes the results of the annual contest which covered the 48 hours between October 24 and 26.

During those two days Mr. Ben-Nissim never budged from his five-band short wave wireless set, and managed to contact 979 radio amateurs in exactly 100 countries. Among the radio fans he spoke to persons living in Alaska, the Soviet Far East, Kuwait, Okinawa, Hungary, Formosa, Chile, and Greenland.

Mr. Ben-Nissim, whose call sign is 4X4GB, is the Israel radio amateur who picked up an S.O.B. from a Ghanaian radio amateur asking for medical aid for eight-year-old Rami Katz, the Israeli boy injured in a road crash in Ghana. As a result of this call Dr. H. Akenwald, of the Beilinson Hospital, flew to Accra where, together with specialists summoned from several other countries, he advised on the boy's condition.

Rami, who is now on the road to recovery, is scheduled to arrive home on Thursday (today).

At the same time plane will be two Ghanaian patients, T. A. Acheampong, 36-year-old former civil servant suffering from lung disease, and Kwame Tarsah, a 22-year-old farmer who requires a brain operation. Both men will receive treatment free of charge in Israel in appreciation of Ghana's efforts to save Rami's life.

"Within 24 hours, I can contact quite easily any place in the world, with the exception of the Arab states and China," 4X4GB told The Jerusalem Post on Wednesday.

Mr. Ben-Nissim has been a radio "ham" for 10 years, and spent $12,500 on his equipment, which he set up himself.

His job is radio technician working with the Ministry of Posts in Tel Aviv.

Belgrade Rift With Warsaw Follows Incident

BERLIN (Reuters). — A top Yugoslav leader left here for Moscow yesterday amid rumors that he might be seeking Soviet intervention in an unexplained rift between Belgrade and Warsaw.

The official Mr. Svetozar Vukmanovic-Tompo, who is member of the 14-man Yugoslav Politburo, was accompanied by his wife and two sons for what was described as a holiday in the Soviet Union. European sources, however, said he had received a meeting with Mr. Khrushchev.

Belgrade diplomats, meanwhile, have been seeking confirmation of widespread reports that Yugoslavians' relations with the Russians have been severely strained by some unpublicized incident.

Reports of a crisis with Poland gained ground after the Yugoslav military attaché in Warsaw last month.

An official Yugoslav spokesman yesterday denied a London newspaper report that the chief of the Polish Air Force, General Frey-Bielecki, had fled to Yugoslavia, but declined comment on reports that a defection of some kind had taken place.

One usually well-informed source here said there had been unofficial reports from Warsaw that General Frey-Bielecki had fled to Yugoslavia, but declined comment on reports that a defection of some kind had taken place.

There were also reports that a Soviet MiG jet fighter was seen over Belgrade, apparently in the last days of December. The Polish Air Force has MiGs but the Yugoslav Air Force has not.

B-G Wants USSR To Stop Arming Arabs

Jerusalem Post Knesset Reporter

The Prime Minister yesterday expressed his regret that even after Mr. Khrushchev's recent statement on disarmament before the U.N. General Assembly, offensive armaments were still streaming from the Soviet Union to Egypt and Iraq.

Mr. Ben-Gurion was replying to a motion for the agenda by Dr. Moshe Shach (Communist) dealing with an appeal sent by the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. to all the parliaments of the world, calling on them to do their part in the disarmament of the world.

With the Government's policy thus already on record, Mr. Ben-Gurion said no reason for a debate on the subject.

Referring to Soviet arms shipments to Egypt and Iraq — the leaders of both countries had openly declared that it was their aim to disarm the Arab states — Mr. Ben-Gurion said that such shipments certainly could be stopped. No mutual agreement was required for this, he said, but the U.S.S.R. should carry out what its Prime Minister had said.

France to Sell Jets to Indonesia

PARIS (Reuters). — France is to sell India and Indonesia 10 Dassault Mirage 111 jet fighters, after the French Government agreed yesterday to purchase Lockheed Starfighters, although the French-built plane is admitted to be cheaper than, and just as good as, the American fighter.

The European allies reportedly justified their decision by explaining that, if their air forces were equipped with Mirage aircraft, they would become dependent on France, which refuses to integrate her aerial defence within the NATO framework.

The Quai d'Orsay reportedly decided to retaliate by offering France about 20 Starfighters to the Indonesian Government.

An Indonesian military mission has arrived here to study the Mirage aircraft.

The Starfighter, meanwhile, is to be produced in Germany under licence, with the various European allies contributing towards the required investment. It is reported that considerable indignation was aroused in French Government circles when France, too, was asked to share in financing the German plants manufacturing the Starfighter.

U.S. Removes Planes From France

LAKENHEATH, England (Reuters). — The first of 19 U.S. Super Sabre jet fighters flew to the American Air Force base here on Wednesday from Chamblee, France.

The rest of the three squadrons of F-100 aircraft are due to arrive in the next few days.

About 1,000 men are involved in the transfer, which completes the withdrawal from France of 260 Super Sabres announced by the U.S. last July.

The decision was taken after France refused to allow the U.S. to freely stockpile atomic weapons on her territory.

De Gaulle to Canada Before U.S. Visit

PARIS (Reuters). — President de Gaulle will visit Canada from April 18 to 22, and then go to the U.S. "until the end of the month," it was officially announced here on Wednesday.

The French President who is to receive the Soviet Prime Minister, Mr. Nikita Khrushchev, in France during March will visit Britain from April 5 to 8 and will then go to the U.S. for a summit meeting after having had personal talks with all the other participants.

Rumania Said Planning Trial Of 'Zionist Spies'

BONNE (Reuters). — The Italian Agency's Constantinople reported from Bucharest last night that a wave of arrests of Jews accused of Zionist activities is now at its height in Rumania.

The agency, which specializes in Communist affairs, said that the arrests were connected with a forthcoming "spy trial" of 25 Jews, headed by a journalist named Elia Singer.

They will be charged with "Zionist espionage in Rumania," according to the agency.

The report said that recently four Jewish actors had been given jail terms of six to 10 years for "inserting without authorization Zionist propaganda songs into their lines."

Agencia Continental added that a number of Rabbis loyal to the Communist regime had denounced Zionism as a manifestation of imperialism. It quoted these as saying that Communism and Zionism were the sworn enemies of Israel, "the matrix of imperialistic Zionism."

The report said the present wave of arrests covered Bucharest, Kluj and Jassy.

Meir Warns Bunche Of Action on Suez

FOREIGN MINISTER GOLDA MEIR conferred in Monrovia on Tuesday with the U.N. Under-Secretary for Political Affairs, Dr. Ralph Bunche, on the Suez Canal blockade.

She will be in Cairo next Saturday.

Although by late last night no report on the meeting had been received in Jerusalem, Mr. Meir is believed to have reiterated Israel's determination to employ all means at its disposal to secure its rights of passage through the Suez Canal, should Dr. Bunche and Mr. Hammarskjold fail in their forthcoming meetings to persuade Cairo leaders to end the blockade.

Mr. Meir conferred with President Lyndon B. Johnson for an hour on Tuesday, and met with the Prime Ministers of Sierra Leone and of Togoland.

The Foreign Minister is due to conclude her five-day visit to Liberia today and is to proceed to Sierra Leone.

U.S. APPOINTS ENVOY TO U.A.R.

CAIRO (UPI). — The U.A.R. has approved the nomination of Frederick Reinhardt as U.S. Ambassador to Cairo. A Foreign Ministry spokesman announced yesterday.

Mr. Reinhardt, Counselor in the State Department, succeeds Mr. Raymond Hare who returns to the State Department.

Showman Billy Rose Gives $1m. Statue Collection to Jerusalem

NEW YORK (UPI). — Showman Billy Rose is giving Israel his million-dollar statutory collection for a five-acre garden of the projected National Museum of Israel, overlooking the Valley of the Cross in Jerusalem.

Disclosure of the gift was made at the annual dinner-concert of the American Israel Cultural Foundation at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York.

A letter was read at the dinner from Premier David Ben-Gurion, in which he thanked Mr. Rose for his "magnificent gift."

Mr. Ben-Gurion said: "Overnight, this cultural center in the Middle East has become an important repository of modern sculpture. Mr. Rose's faith in the young State of Israel and his desire to contribute to the cultural renaissance of Jerusalem is in the tradition of an historic and prophetic past."

Mr. Rubin, in making the announcement, said the garden would give an impetus to the development of the prestige of Jerusalem as an art center.

The Israeli Ambassador, Mr. Avraham Harman, said the gift would transform a barren, stony field into a beautiful garden.

The program of last night's dinner-concert included a performance of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Gary Bertini, with Isaac Stern, violinist; Rina Roemer, dramatic soprano; and George London, bass, as soloists.

Eisenhower's Travel Plans Announced

WASHINGTON (Reuters). — President Eisenhower, accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, will visit Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay beginning on February 23, the White House announced yesterday.

Mr. Eisenhower's plans are to end his plane tour in Uruguay on March 5 and then possibly rest a while in Porto Rico on his way home to Washington.

Milan Fascist Band Held As Plague Spreads Wide

LONDON. — Scotland Yard is not inclined to treat the recent rash of swastika daubings lightly, but inquiries made so far lead them to believe that there is no organized group for anti-Semitic action in Britain.

An official of the Yard — British police headquarters — told your correspondent that such crime waves are a recurring feature of the underworld, with the type of crime varying. There has been a wave of wanton destruction in parks and gardens, a spate of false alarms summoning fire brigades, then a widespread parcel-bomb scare at post offices and railway luggage vans which was confined to telephone warnings without a bomb being discovered in a single parcel.

The official said certain types of young criminals were readily pinning such campaigns "to let off steam" or express their hatred of certain groups such as the police force, park-keepers, the Jews, Negroes, or anyone else.

While they are not letting up on investigations, police believe this sort of crime to be contagious. This is why they request the owners or housekeepers of marked buildings — in one case a Roman Catholic Church — to remove the swastikas and slogans as soon as possible, preferably before daybreak.

The German Embassy here has been asked to accede to the request to remove the swastika and slogan from its premises.

Leaders of the West German War Veterans and War Disabled organizations yesterday sent a telegram to the German Government, asking it to condemn the swastika and slogan from its premises.

French Catholics Warn of Danger

PARIS. — The Catholic newspaper "L'Aurore" warned yesterday against the danger that young people might consider anti-Semitic manifestations merely as "some cruel game." The paper published a three-column picture showing a large inscription "Jew Get Out" painted on a church.

Similar inscriptions have been daubed on churches.

An editorial in "L'Aurore" refused to admit the possibility of the serious rebirth of anti-Semitism after the murder of six million Jews, and accused the campaign the work of a small group.

The conservative "Paris Presse" suggests that the punishment for those caught painting swastikas should be a week in what remains of the concentration camps, in the charnel houses of Nazi Buchenwald and Auschwitz.

A rash of swastikas and anti-Semitic slogans appeared yesterday in Paris, Toulouse and Bordeaux.

'Yard' Doubts Rash Was Organized

LONDON. — Scotland Yard is not inclined to treat the recent rash of swastika daubings lightly, but inquiries made so far lead them to believe that there is no organized group for anti-Semitic action in Britain.

An official of the Yard — British police headquarters — told your correspondent that such crime waves are a recurring feature of the underworld, with the type of crime varying. Bonn Presses Anti-Racist Law

Swastikas and anti-Semitic slogans again appeared in different parts of the world yesterday, from Brazil to South Africa. Twenty members of a Nazi group were arrested in Milan. At the same time, the West German Cabinet decided to urge the Bundestag (Lower House) to pass as quickly as possible a bill directed against incitement to religious or racial hatred.

The decision was taken at a specially-summed Cabinet meeting presided over by Chancellor Adenauer. It was urged that persons suspected of carrying out swastika markings should be brought to trial as quickly as possible and given sentences "fitting the gravity of the deeds."

A spokesman of the Federal Ministry of Interior yesterday disclosed that investigations on the constitutional of the German Reich Party have not yet been concluded. "Thus far we have not found conclusive evidence that the chain of anti-Semitic incidents was organized," he said.

In Milan, police yesterday detained 20 youths belonging to an extreme right-wing organization called the "New European Order." Police seized Nazi flags, uniforms and armbands, arms, ammunition and Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis banners.

Police said some of the arms and ammunition were found at the home of a 28-year-old philosophy teacher, while others were found at a field telephone were discovered at the home of a 20-year-old Hungarian refugee student.

To Mental Home

A youth wearing a swastika armband in Rome was sent to a mental hospital by police, who detained him yesterday. They said he was thought to be mentally unbalanced.

In Messina, Sicily, a swastika was painted on the base of the statue of Don John of Austria, as well as on the walls of the main post office. Newspaper editions in many countries continued to express abhorrence at the wave of anti-Semitic incidents.

Leaders of the West German War Veterans and War Disabled organizations yesterday sent a telegram to the German Government, asking it to condemn the swastika and slogan from its premises.

The editor of West Indian newspaper "The Star" said she had received a threatening telephone call from someone purporting to represent the "New Movement." Dr. Indira Gandhi, Principal of Jews College, London, received an anonymous phone call threatening to burn down his office. It was telephoned to his home in north-west London.

In Dublin, swastikas and slogans "Go home Jew" and "Hitler" — were daubed on one of the main gates of Dalmat Park, the Republic's largest soccer ground.

At midnight on Tuesday, Nazi soldiers cut off the radio-telephone service for ships at sea in Europe in connection with the broadcast three times: "Weil Hitler — Juden Raus" (Hitler, Japs, Out).

255 DIE IN CONGO WITCHCRAFT RITUALS

LULUABOURG, Belgian Congo (Reuters). — Belgian authorities have announced that the number of victims in an outbreak of witchcraft practices in the Mweke district, north of here, had reached a total of 255.

Witch-doctors who could resume their practices banned by the Belgians on their arrival in the Congo 17 years ago, but only eradicated about 30 years ago.

The witch-doctors imposed the so-called "Tshikapa test" on their victims under which the villagers volunteered to prove they were not possessed by evil spirits.

The test included drinking a bowl of juice from a tree called "the red tree of blood," a virulent poison. Those who survived the test were considered free of evil spirits.

SWASTIKA IN ELAT

ELAT. — A swastika, chalked in blue on a wall on Wednesday morning on the wall of the main synagogue here, it was rubbed out by the police.

Petahya Shamir, member of the Zionist General Council, reported that he had seen a swastika on the wall of a hut in Yotvat.

Bond Drive Sales Top $52m.; 15% Rise in 'Non-Crisis' Year

Jerusalem Post Economic Reporter
 The Israel Bond Organization sold nearly $52m. worth of bonds during 1959 — its second best year — the Executive Vice-President of the organization, Dr. Joseph J. Schwartz, told a press conference in Jerusalem yesterday.

This achievement, 15 per cent higher than in 1958, is a reflection of the confidence in Israel's economic stability, he stressed. He pointed out that the year ended last year was the year of the Sinai Campaign.

The Minister of Agriculture, Abba Hushi, and the Minister of Defense, Moshe Dayan, will be at the opening of the 1960 campaign in Jerusalem on February 15 and will be joined by the Governor of the Bank of Israel, Mr. David Horowitz, and the Minister of Finance, Levi Eshkol.

The organization's Board of Governors will meet on January 15 and will be briefed by the Governor of the Bank of Israel, Mr. David Horowitz, and the Minister of Finance, Levi Eshkol.

Government-Agency Committee Aims Budget

Jerusalem Post Reporter
 The Government-Jewish Agency Coordinating Committee met in Jerusalem yesterday to discuss the 1960-61 budget allocations for joint activities — housing, settlement, and immigrant absorption.

The Committee's Sub-committee for Israel Affairs was charged with settling outstanding issues.

Representing the Government were Prime Minister Ben-Gurion and Ministers Eshkol, Joseph, and Ben-Aharon. Agency delegates were the President of the World Zionist Organization, Dr. Nahum Goldmann, and Executive members Messrs. Shazar, Joseph, Shazar, and Ben-Aharon.

A decision on the appointment of a Secretary-General of the Jewish Agency was deferred until today by the special five-member Agency committee which was to settle the matter in Jerusalem yesterday.

Runway to Handle Jets Almost Ready

Lydda Airport's winter runway will be able to handle heavy jet aircraft inside of a week. The runway has been extensively strengthened in the course of the past few months to be able to support the impact of the giant jets.

This was revealed on Wednesday by the spokesman of the Ministry of Transport following a visit of the Minister, Mr. Y. Ben-Aharon, to the airport. The work which cost nearly $1,500,000 is an interim measure until the new jet runway is completed sometime next year. The renovations cost nearly $1,500,000.

Herzliya Ma'bara Evacuated

Jerusalem Post Reporter
 Residents of Jell ma'bara leaving for their new flats in Herzliya. The ma'bara will be liquidated inside of a fortnight.

HERZLIYA. — The last residents of the Jell ma'bara near here prepared to vacate their flats on Wednesday. Twenty-five families moved out in yesterday's pouring rain to the newly-built Weizmann housing estate in Herzliya.

For the past 11 years, the ma'bara has been a source of trouble for the residents of the Tel Aviv-Natanyah area. Its ground will be used now as an extension of the Herzliya industrial development zone.

Their job will be to encourage direct investments in the Israeli economy by Americans in the form of establishment of new enterprises or the purchase of shares or bonds in existing Israeli firms, both private and Government-owned.

Arabs MK's Motion Divides Coalition

Jerusalem Post Knesset Reporter
 The sharp language of Mapam's Arab Member, Mr. Yusef Khamis, yesterday resulted in a Coalition split on the vote on Mr. Khamis' motion for the Government to take action against the Arab MK's.

The Weizmann Housing Estate will eventually accommodate 600 families. The ma'bara dwellers will share the estate with families who purchased flats there under the Housing Division of the Ministry of Labour, declared that all but 27 of the present ma'bara would be liquidated by the end of 1960.

Mr. A. Cygal, head of the Jewish Agency's Absorption Department, reported that the next ma'bara to be liquidated will be that at Beit Shimon, Ofekim, Yavot Yam, Ashdod, Kiryat Shimon, Nahariya, Ma'ala, Yakum, Haruvit and Hiri. They should be evacuated by April.
